OFFICERS TO BE ELECTED BY THE INCOMING LEGISLATURE. - On the principle that an agricultural fair advertises the premiums it offers to be contended for, we copy below a list of the officers to be filled by our next Legislature, with the pay attaching to each. They are as follows:

Senator of the United States. Salary $7,500. Secretary of the Commonwealth-Salary, $2,500; Auditor of Public Accounts, $3,000; Second Auditor, $2,000; Treasurer, $2,000; Superintendent of Public Instruction, $2,000; Superintendent of Public Printing, $1.500; Superintendent of Public Buildings, $1,200.

In this connection a statement of the number of clerks employed in each department will be read with interest : In the Executive Department-Assistant clerk, $1,500; copying clerk, $1,200; superintendent weights and measures, $300; aid-decamp to the Governor, $2,100. In Office of Auditor of Public Accounts-Clerk of accounts, $2,000; two first clerks, each $1,600; two second clerks, each $1,300; three third clerks, each $1,200; two fourth clerks, each $1,000. In Office of Second Auditor-First clerk, $1,600; second clerk, $1,300; third clerks, each

In Treasurer's Office-First clerk, $1,600; second clerk, $1,300; third clerk, $1,200. Besides these each branch of the Legislature elects a sergeant-at-arms and various door-keepers. The heads of the various departments appoint their own clerks. It is apparent from many indications that there will be an active canvass and a warm contest for most of these positions. Already candidates are in the field pressing their claims, and circulars of recommendation are being scattered through the State. - Petersburg Index-Ap-

CAPTAIN BUDDINGTON AT HOME. - A Groton correspondent of the Norwich Bulletin writes: 'Last Friday Captain Buddington, of the Polaris, returned to his home after an absence of more than two years. It is safe to say that he is the best slandered man the country has produced since Grant fought the battle of Shiloh. But he looks bright, cheerful and good natured, and this all arises from good digestion and a good conscience. "I have a good conscience," he says, "and I can bear the reproaches of those who reproach me. He has brought to the government all the journals and memorardum books, including the latest entries in Captain Hall's journal, and by these he is able to disperse the wild rumors which have been raised against him. Hall, among his last entries, speaks of the faithful manner in which Captain Buddington has carried out his orders. And why should he not? Captain Buddington was his old and tried friend. Since 1860 they have wintered and summered together more than once. It was this Captain Buddington with whom he made his voyage to Frobisher's Straits in 1860-'62, and it was this same Buddington that he thought of before all other men, of whom he knew a host, for his

This is the title of a fine engraving of the Death Red of, "Stonewall" Jackson, 14x18 inches in size, and printed on heavy plate paper. Officers of the Confederate army are grouped sor-rowfully around the couch of this great and good man, this Christian soldier, whose life-blood has been given for his country. In the distance is the encamping army, the weary sent-inel on his beat, &c. It is a picture that will touch every Southern heart, and should have a place in every Southern home. Sent by mail, mounted on roller, securely wrapped, and post-paid, for 20 cts., or three for 50 cents. Address W. M. BURROW,
